WELCOME TO CANBERRA

On behalf of the entire Jewish Community of the Australian Capital Territory, welcome.

We are delighted that you have chosen the National Jewish Memorial Centre for the first ever national Jewish genealogical conference to be held in Australia. And it is appropriate that you have done so, because you are fulfilling the mission of our Centre, which is to be the National Centre, for all the Jews of Australia.

There are many attractions in and around Canberra, and I hope that you make the time to enjoy some of them. For those of you who are arriving before the conference please note that we hold Friday evening services (both Progressive and Orthodox) at 6 p.m. and Shabbat services at 9.30 a.m. (Orthodox) and 10.15 a.m. (Progressive), followed by a communal Kiddush to which all are invited.

I wish you all a most successful conference; for our part we shall do everything possible to make your experience a happy one. If there is anything you need, please don't hesitate to ask one of our volunteers, who will be clearly identified.
