

Jewish Genealogy in the 21st Century

National Jewish Memorial Centre
National Circuit, Forrest, Canberra

Sunday 26 – Monday 27 October 2008

- Lectures/presentations
- Panel discussions
- Special Interest Group (SIG) meetings
- Project planning session
- Conference Dinner

Tuesday 28 – Wednesday 29 October 2008

- Visits to archival institutions (National Archives of Australia, National Library of Australia, Australian War Memorial)
- Bus trip to Goulburn Cemetery and Jewish sites

The Conference aims to provide a varied program combining a mixture of lectures/seminars and panel inputs, together with visits to National Institutions and genealogical resources. The opportunity to meet in person the many contributors to the internet discussion groups will be an occasion not to be missed.

Registration fee $120

Dinner – optional ($80 per head)

(estimate - covers Conference attendance, morning and afternoon teas and lunches for Sunday and Monday, Conference handouts). All food will be kosher.

Please indicate your expression of interest to conf2008@ajgs.org.au

Please note, by expressing your interest, you are not registering for the Conference

A Conference Program and a list of accommodation venues near the Conference, and their rates, will be available soon

For updated information visit www.ajgs.org.au

